

Tim Yarbrough

ENTREPRENEUR AND ACTIVIST

For 40 years Tim has owned and operated businesses with 35 of those years including a mentoring/apprenticeship model that has served approximately 400 young men and women while launching scores of Biblically-centered family-based businesses. An advocate of leavening a culture through localism, his practical on-the-ground experience can offer direction, motivation, and wisdom in how to use your family, friends, business, and fellowship to impact your local culture for the Kingdom of God.
